PREFACE.

Perhaps some note of explanation should preface these few pages of "Wardwell Genealogy" as it is a very brief sketch, attempting to collect only the dates of the ancestors of Solomon Wardwell and the descendants of his two sons, Ezra and Amos, who resided in New Hampshire.

Included with an invitation to attend a reunion of the descendants of "Solomon Wardwell" in 1904, was a request that I should furnish some dates or family history, if there were such in my possession, as very little was known of the early history of the family. So I tried to collect what I could hastily, and as the time then was so limited it was suggested that a leaflet be printed for all to refer to; and later on it was decided to try to bring the record down to the present generation and members of the different families have kindly responded to my request for family records of more recent dates. I have also tried to trace the ancestry back to the first of the name who came to America and I think I have the line direct from Thomas Wardwell, our first ancestor, to the present date, having collected it from various sources, a date here and there. There may be errors which will call for charitable criticism, but I have endeavored to do the best I could under the circumstances without making an expensive work, as a perfect "Wardwell Genealogy" would mean more than I could attempt. The earlier generations settled in various localities of Maine, Connecticut and New Jersey, none of which I have tried to trace, but thought it best to include a memorandum of dates from the Boston records of the service in the Revolutionary War of the sons of Thomas (of the fourth generation) which may be of interest to some.

I am greatly indebted to Miss C. H. Abbott of Andover, who kindly assisted me with her knowledge of Andover history, which is very extensive. As I am no professional genealogist, my only hope is that each may find something of interest and kindly pardon any unintentional errors.

Sincerely yours,

ELIZABETH WARDWELL STAY.

WAR RECORDS.

Some extracts from Boston records of the service in the Revolutionary War of the four sons of Thomas⁴ Wardwell.

Solomon⁶, born 1743, was 32 years of age at the breaking out of the war. He marched with the militia under Capt. Henry Abbott, a private, April 19, 1775, one and one half days; traveled fifty miles; one day travel home allowed. (Record Vol. 1, Page 193.) Second service under Capt. John Peabody, travel allowed and a gun and blanket and moving to and from camp from Andover. On the rolls Nov. 20th, 1778, in a company drafted from towns of Essex County—Salisbury, Newburyport, Bradford, Haverhill, Methuen, Boxford and Andover. Two days' allowance served. (Vol. 21, p. 195.)

Jeremiah⁸, born 1748, was 27 years of age in 1775; went with Capt. Ben. Ames Co., Col. Frye Regt., from Andover, but belonged to Pembroke, N. H. A "minute man" at Lexington alarm, April 19, 1775, (Vol. 11, p. 189) also at the battle of Bunker Hill at Charlestown, June 19, 1775, under Capt. Ben. Ames. Received order for a bounty coat, Nov. 14, 1775, (Vol. 35, p. 172 and vol. 57, p. 4.)

Ezekiel⁵, born 1750, was 25 years of age when war broke out. He was a minute man under Capt. Ben. Ames and Col. Frye from Andover, seven days, in camp at Cambridge, May 17, 1775; also acted as Guard under Lieut. Col. L. Baldwin, and June 22, 1775 as a Sergeant (Vol. 58, p. 32.) He was in the battle of Charlestown, June 17, 1775, with Capt. Ben. Ames, (Vol. 32, p. 172). He had a bounty coat payable to Lieut. David Chandler, Nov. 14, 1775; at Cambridge, also served 1st Sergeant with Capt. John Abbott, July 10, to Oct. 10, 1780. He served three months one day with 220 miles travel. He also served at West Point, three days travel, the regiment serving three months. He lived to be 84 years old.

Daniel^s, born 1753, died 1782, went as a private of Capt. Henry Abbott's Co. to Lexington alarm, April 19, 1775. One and one-half days with 50 miles travel, and one day's travel home were allowed. Daniel died young and his brother Ezekiel married his widow, and one grandson, B. L. Wardwell, is still living in Andover, age 89 years. Some of the Wardwells have lived to great ages, over 100 years old.

There are also records of cousins of the sons of Thomas^s who saw service in the War.

Joshua Wardwell, born 1757, entered the army at 18 years of age. He marched under Lieut. John Adams at Lexington alarm, April, 1775, he was also with Capt. Joshua Reed, Jan. 1st, 1776, (Vol. 55, p. 14), also with Samuel Johnson's Co., Col. Johnson's Regt. Aug. 14, 1777, served to Nov. 30, making three months in the Northern army from Andover, drawing three months' pay from Andover 3rd Co., Oct. 18, 1779, and was also with Capt. Lovejoy and Col. Sam. Johnson, going from Andover to Cambridge via Billerica and spending three and one-half days.

His brother, Joseph Wardwell, born in 1760, enlisted even younger than Joshua, with Capt. Samuel Johnson's Co., was with Col. Johnson's Regt., Nov. 30, 1777, and four months, eight days in Northern Army from Andover, 13 days' travel being allowed, (Vol. 20, p. 102); 1778-1782 was with Col. Marshall and other regiments not identified. January 18, 1782, was Sergeant on a wages list of the 10th Mass. Regiment, and was with Col. Ben. Tupper, Jan. 1st, 1781, to Jan. 1st, 1782. With Jonathan Glover's Regiment Nov. 7, 1777, enlisted from Andover for Marblehead quota for three years with Col. Ben. Tupper's 5th Essex Regiment, Oct. 26, 1779. He enlisted for the war as 20 years of age though only 19, (but all the Wardwells were tall) 5 feet 10 inches. He served in Capt. Stephen Abbott's Co., 10th Regiment, a Sergeant from 1782-1783; promoted ensign Jan. 8th, 1782.

GENEALOGIES.

1. WARDWELL, THOMAS,¹ with his wife, Elizabeth, came from Great Britain to Boston, Mass., in 1633, accompanied by his brother William. Soon after they joined the first church in Boston, but being "Antinomians" and followers of Jno. Wheelwright and Ann Hutchinson, were dismissed from said church and they with several others banded together and organized an independent church at Exeter, N. H., which however continued but three years. Thomas was appointed justice and commissioner to try small cases for that jurisdiction, where he remained a few years and returned to Boston, where he died Dec. 10th, 1646. John Wheelwright was later reinstated in the Boston church, but William Wardwell inclined toward the Quaker religion and his children were brought up in that religious belief, reference being found in New Jersey history, where they went later on. One informant says he lived in Wells, Me., for a short time, also, and returned to Boston, where he died in 1670. Children :

- i. ELIAKIM², born 1634.
- ii. MARTHA², born, August, 1637.
- iii. BENJAMIN², born, February, 1639.
2. iv. SAMUEL², born, Boston, May 16, 1643.

2. WARDWELL, SAMUEL², son of Thomas, is mentioned in John H. Hinton's history of the United States as follows: "Even amidst those who had been overcome with the powerful temptation arising from the desire to escape the dreadful doom of those who persisted in their innocence, there were some who on mature reflection did not hesitate to retract their forced confession, though death looked them full in the face. Samuel Wardwell was the first who ventured to act so noble a part and he was immediately put on trial, condemned and hanged." With seven others he was hanged for the imagined crime of witchcraft at Salem, Mass., Sept. 22, 1692. His property was confiscated for the use of the State. Samuel¹ the martyr, and son of Thomas¹, was one of the pioneers of Andover, Mass., where he married Sarah Hooper Hawkes, Jan. 9, 1672. She was living as late as 1703, when she with several others who had been condemned for witchcraft in 1692, but whose sentence had not been executed, petitioned the General Court to have their conviction removed and blotted from the records, which petition was granted. Mary, Samuel's eldest child, though but nineteen years old, was one of the condemned. As a compensation for the sufferings of the family the General Court voted to them the sum of thirty-six pounds ten shillings and sixpence. No record is found of the death of Samuel's wife, but she was taxed as Widow Wardwell as late as 1699. Her sons Samuel and William paid taxes in 1700, and from a deed given by his son Samuel, who sold the homestead and moved to Connecticut in 1735, it is thought the site of his home is very nearly traced, as he was one of the pioneers of Andover. Children :

- i. MARY², born Oct. 3, 1673; married John Wright.
- ii. ELIZABETH², born Sept. 3, 1675.
- iii. SAMUEL², born Feb. 24, 1677, sold homestead in 1735 and removed to Somers, Conn.
3. iv. WILLIAM², born Nov. 9, 1679.
- v. ELIAKIM², born Aug. 17, 1687.
- vi. REBECCA², born Sept. 10, 1691, married Ezekiel Osgood.

3. WARDWELL, WILLIAM³, (Samuel², Thomas¹,) born Nov. 9, 1679, married Dorothy Wright; she was born in 1688; married Nov. 25, 1706; she died Nov. 15, 1773; he died April 22, 1751.
 - i. THOMAS⁴, born 1709.
 - ii. JONATHAN⁴, born 1711; died 1788.
 - iii. WILLIAM⁴, died 1773.
 - iv. SARAH⁴.
 - v. DOROTHY⁴, married Samuel Osgood.
 - vi. PHÆBE⁴, born 1717.
 - vii. JOHN⁴, of Andover.
 - viii. HANNAH⁴.
 - ix. ELIAKIM⁴, born 1723.
 - x. NATHAN⁴, born 1724; died 1738.
 - xi. MARY⁴, born 1727; died 1738.
4. WARDWELL, THOMAS⁴, (William³, Samuel², Thomas¹,) born 1709; married in 1735 Abigail Gray, born 1715; died 1778. He died 1776. His house stood near the center of the town of Andover and is the oldest site of any of the Wardwell homesteads surely known, though it is well understood that the house of his father, William, was located on the hillside, toward the east. Change of names of locations make it difficult to trace with certainty, as there have been several different "Boston roads," since the settlement of the town.
 - i. DAMAIRS⁵, born 1737; died 1767.
 - ii. SOLOMON⁵, born 1738; died 1742.
 - iii. MARY⁵, born 1740; died 1742.
 - iv. JEREMIAH⁵, born 1742; died 1747.
 - v. SOLOMON⁵, born 1743; died Sept. 20, 1825.
 - vi. MARY⁵, born 1745; died 1745.
 - vii. SILVANUS⁵, born 1746; died 1747.
 - viii. JEREMIAH⁵, born 1748, was in the Revolutionary War in 1775.
 - ix. EZEKIEL⁵, born 1750; died 1834.
 - x. DANIEL⁵, born 1753; died 1782.

5. WARDWELL, SOLOMON⁶, (Thomas⁴, William³, Samuel², Thomas¹), born in Andover, Mass., 1743; married Bethia Holt in 1767; she died April 13, 1812, aged 67 years, 8 months. He died Sept. 20, 1825, aged 82 years. He resided in Andover, was a "cabinet maker," and the site of his cabinet shop is the present location of Phillip's Academy at Andover. He removed to Hollis, N. H., as shown by a deed to a farm of ninety acres, for which he paid four hundred pounds, dated Sept. 26, 1777. He removed to Packersfield, N. H., probably late in the year of 1784, as the church records show that he and his wife, Bethia, united with the church by letter in 1784; other papers show that he was one of the "selectmen" in 1786. He owned several pieces of land and built a new house on what was known as lot No. 2, range 8, in the northeast part of the town. Various papers show that he was one of the prominent citizens of the town. He continued his work as a cabinet maker as long as he was able to work, and many pieces of his work are still to be found. On March 28, 1798, he deeded the "lot No. 2, range 8" to his son Ezra, in consideration of seven hundred dollars, and made his home there until his death. Children :
